West Metro Chamber’s Chairman’s Gala – Celebrating 75 Years of Serving the Community

LAKEWOOD, CO – The year 2020 marks the 75th Anniversary of the West Metro Chamber and their involvement in growing the local economy. They celebrated by hosting their annual awards to honor businesses, individuals and organizations from Jefferson County at the Chairman’s Gala. Each winner was nominated and selected because they exemplify leadership, collaboration and give back to the Jefferson County community. They were awarded at the West Metro Chamber Chairman’s Gala at the Denver Marriott West on Friday, January 31, 2020.

Small Business of the Year
Flights Wine Cafe

Medium Business of the Year
Eaton Senior Communities

Large Business of the Year
Red Rocks Community College

Nonprofit of the Year
Severe Weather Shelter Network

Minority / Woman-owned Business of the Year
Mathnasium of Littleton

Steve Burkholder Diamond Legacy Winner
Retired Police Chief of Wheat Ridge, Dan Brennan

The West Metro Chamber is extremely grateful for the support from the community, especially the businesses and organizations that sponsored the Annual Chairman’s Gala: Marxaire, Red Rocks Community College, LaDawn Sperling – Coldwell Banker, Bandimere Speedway, Independent Financial, US Bank, Foundations Insurance, Complete Business Systems, Denver Marriott West, Josh Caucutt – Edward Jones, Profile by Sanford, Ecographics Printing, Isaac Robinson-Stark Photography, and Erika Holley – Vivial.

For more information about the Chairman’s Gala please visit www.westmetrochamber.org or call 303.233.5555